

“Ten Commandments”

I wrote this little hymn with children in mind, but adults are allowed to sing it too! In just four simple lines it teaches the importance of learning to say the Ten Commandments, remembering them daily, putting them into practice, and knowing that they will always hold true. I have the children flash their ten fingers each of the four times we sing the words “Ten Commandments.”